City Center Residence is an ideal choice for both investors and lifestyle buyers alike. Central Pattaya is still today the most popular location for both short-term and long-term renters alike to base themselves in the city and so apartments here will be very easy to rent out. Those buyers purchasing for personal use are sure to appreciate the highly convenient location right in the heart of Pattaya. The development consists of three eight-storey buildings, each of which offers studio and one-bedroom apartments which can be easily combined to form larger-sized units. All of the 800 apartments have been specially designed to maximize the use of internal space in order to create an ideal city centre pied-a-terre. Unusually for city centre complexes where space is often quite limited, City Center Residence contains a full selection of facilities that you would normally expect to find only on larger resorts some way from the centre, including a large swimming pool and a fully equipped fitness centre for those who have indulged on eating out at the wide selection of affordable restaurants within easy walking distance of the resort.

To ensure complete security, City Center Residence has a front desk which is manned around the clock plus security cameras while access to the apartments is by keycard only.

For anyone who is looking for a well-designed development with all of the main attractions of Pattaya within walking distance and all at affordable prices, City Center Residence is sure to be an ideal choice. View less
