Description: Setthasiri San Sai has to be one of the most beautiful villa developments currently on offer in the Chiang

Mai area. The architecture is typically Thai in nature a blend of traditional Lanna style for which the area is noted, blended with minimalist, modern, clean lines. Each of the villas which comprise this upmarket and exclusive development benefit from large terraces on the upper-floors, which offer beautiful views of the distant mountains to the north and, in some cases, of the river that winds its way through the community.

Potential buyers have four different styles of homes to choose from at Setthasiri San Sai. Three of the models are three-bedroom/three-bathroom villas ranging from the smallest Kirisiri model with 160m² of internal space, through the Wareesiri which has an internal area of 170m², up to the significantly larger Naphangsiri model, which is a roomy 240m². For those who require even more space, the project also offers a four-bedroom/four-bathroom option the Tarasiri, which covers a total of 283m².

In total, the project will consist of 160 residences spread across a large plot of 53-rai. Included in this area are two different parks, offering relaxing green areas to all residents without the need to move from this secure, gated community which benefits from constant security. At the centre of the project is a Clubhouse, which offers communal facilities to all residents.

Located in the northern suburbs of Chiang Mai, the project is close to an intersection of two major highways, offering quick and easy access to all parts of the city. The project is located just 6km north of Central Festival one of the biggest shopping malls in the North of Thailand, Closer still is the nearby Ruam Chok Market. Setthasiri San Sai is also close to several hospitals and educational facilities, making it an ideal choice for anyone looking for a high-class home for the entire family.
